Therapist: Hello! allow me to present lulo... manage expectations, present exercise guide
Lulo: Hi! I'm Lulo. Nice to meet you! what's your name?
Human: name
Lulo: Nice to meet you! I also had to go through physical therapy when i was growing up, and im here to help you!
Human: cool lets do it
Human (to therapist): how does it work?
Human: tell me more about your backstory?
Human: This is dumb I'm not doing it
Therapist: Lulo helps you with your exercises and reminds you to stay motivated!
Lulo: it's okay to feel that way. rehab is really hard work. whenever you're ready, im here to keep you company.
Lulo: let's go!
Lulo: i'm here to help!
Lulo: i was stepped on by a curious deer when i was a young shroom.
Human: ok, i guess i'm ready
Therapist: let's start with our first exercise.
Lulo: great! let's get back into it
Lulo: Great! Your first exercise is exercise Any questions? If not, lets proceed
Lulo: one.. two.. three... keep that back straight!
Human: i'm ready to get back into it, lulo
Human: yea, how low should i squat?
Human: ugh i cant do it!
Human: i'm doing it!
Lulo: Let's see what your therapist recommends..
Lulo: you got this! keep pushing!
Lulo: great job! keep going!
Lulo: your therapist recommends squatting only to 90 degrees
Lulo: I'm not sure your therapist gave me concrete information on that. I recommend you contact them!
Human: f! i'm done. i hate this
Human: i did it! thanks lulo
Lulo: no problem! happy to help.
Human: thanks lulo!
Human: okay, call them
Lulo: i'm sorry man. take a break. do you need me to contact your therapist?
Human: i'll take a break, and get back to it
Lulo: notifying your PT right now.
Human: yeah, my knee is throbbing
Lulo: good call. flag me when youre ready
Lulo: noting this for your therapist right away. rest up!
Lulo: woohoo! you finished the set! great work. we'll wrap today.
